Run Away, the Cyber Crime Accused Pick Up By Compulsion
Translated best as could

The first cyber crime case in Public Court (Pengadilan Negeri) Denpasar was not running well. The accused, Sang Ayu Made Karnasih (33), which was called since 3 months by Public Prosecutor (Jaksa Penuntut Umum), Suhadi S.H, never come to the court. Therefore, he asked Bali Police to pick up Karnasih and followed the session in Public Court, Yesterday, Wednesday (15/6).

On his accusation, the prosecutor said that she's doing internet business or called Internet Service Provider (ISP) without license from Minister. Karnasih Company named CV. Candi Internet, which is operating web site named www.candiinternet.com located on Jl. Raya Seminyak, Seminyak, Kuta.

Depend on the regulation; it doesn't have license, so the Public Prosecutor punished her with Telecommunication law no.36 year 1999. The first accusation is: Karnasih against the law of chapter 47 KUHP yungto chapter 11 verses 1 Telecommunication law. The second is: chapter 32 KUHP yungto 32 Telecommunication law.

After the prosecutor read his accusation, the judge, Sudia, give his judgment to arrest Karnasih in LP Kerobokan. The judge decide to cancel the witness investigation until next week.
